WELCOME

Join us in Killington, Vermont for the 16th annual Carnage convention, a celebration of tabletop gaming. To help make this an excellent weekend for everyone attending, we have a few suggestions and a couple of rules that will help make this weekend safe and fun for all

Pre-registration

We think this is a very good idea. It helps ensure that you'll be able to participate in the events you want. It will also help save you a little money. Pre-registrations should be completed on the form in the back of this book and mailed in as soon as possible. Feel free to make additional copies.

Any forms received postmarked after November 1 will be declined and held for customers at the Carnage registration desk. GMs: Even if you are only running games, not playing, please turn in a form so that we will make you a name badge. GM and volunteer credit will be applied to the price of admission during pre-registration.

Registration

Everyone who attends Carnage must check in at the registration table upon arrival. If you do not mail in a pre-registration form, please bring a completed form with you to the registration table to help expedite this process. We can only accept cash or check. There is an ATM on-site.

Name Tags

The name badge you receive when you register is your ticket for Carnage and must be worn in a visible location at all times.

The Rules

No smoking, no pets, and no weapons (including soft ammo and "boffer") inside the convention area unless part of a sanctioned event. Please show proper respect for all other participants at the con and for hotel property. Wear your nametag at all times.

The Dealer Area

The dealer area will be open during most of the convention. Please take a few minutes to visit our dealers and see what they have brought. They put out a lot of effort to be here supporting our convention. Show them you appreciate that effort.

Dining

The resort's food vendor is available on site for most meals. When dining outside the resort, it is a good idea to let your server know ahead of time when you will need to return to the con.

Accommodations

As of this printing, the Killington Grand Resort still has space available. Contact the resort at 1-800-621-6867 to make your reservation for Carnage. Note: you must call the resort directly to get the convention room rate. Killington's online reservation system does not apply a convention rate.

The Killington Grand Resort is a mountainside hotel just off the junction of US Route 4 and Vermont Route 100 in Killington. In addition to its convention spaces and variety of lodging choices, the Killington Grand has an in-house restaurant and convenience store, outdoor heated pool, fire pit and health club, all surrounded by the beautiful Green Mountains of Vermont.

The resort has an excellent rate for conventioners and will surely provide for all of your needs over the course of the weekend. Family members of conventioners will also be pleased by Killington's location, which provides easy access to area shopping, touring, and a variety of activities to keep even the non-gamer pleasantly occupied over the course of the weekend.

CENTURIES OF CONFLICT

Centuries of Conflict is an offering of Historical Miniature events directed at the Age of Black Powder. This overall event is directed by the Northern Conspiracy's AJ Wright. The hope is to revive the effects of the much loved, and much missed, TriCon event. Each year the event takes a different century as its focus.

WARGAME ROOM

Come play your favorite historical board game. OCS, CWB, A3R, and plenty more will be offered. Email Chuck at cdavis@vermontel.net to find out what games are being played or to get your game on the "opponents wanted" list. Also check the folder in the consimworld.com convention area. Please visit the Promote Your Game Forum:

GAMES FOR KIDS ONLY

This year, thanks to Justin Berman, Carnage is offering a day of kids-only board gaming. On Saturday from 8am to 5pm in the Board Game Room, Justin and some of the Carnage staff will be teaching kid-friendly games. The kids must be between the ages of 6 and 12. No parents are allowed to play. (But they can sit and watch and maybe even kibitz.) All we ask is that parents let the staff know where they will be if they are not staying. The kids can stop by anytime during the day and jump into a game or learn a new one. Parents do not have to register their children for this event, as it is complimentary for attendees bringing their families. And even if your son or daughter is registering for the convention to play in other events, they can still join in the fun! Please be sure to check the website for any updates and contact us with any questions.

Role playing games for this age range will be offered as well; look for games labeled for kids in the RPG section of this booklet (R6 adults and kids; R54 kids only) and at the Carnage RPGA game signup at <http://warhorn.net/carnage-2012-lfr>.

CARNAGE ON THE MOUNTAIN

This year's Carnage theme is "Carnage on the Mountain," in honor of our new location at Killington. Many of our RPG GMs have crafted games inspired by the theme. The entries for these games begin with "MT."

PATHFINDER SOCIETY INFORMATION

To pre-register for Pathfinder Society (PFS) games, players must BOTH mail in a hard-copy Carnage registration form AND sign up on Warhorn at <https://warhorn.net/events/carnage-on-the-mountain-pfs>. Walk-ins will be accommodated once pre-registered attendees are seated.

PLAYING IT OLD SCHOOL

Join the Old School Renaissance! Role playing games from the wild, halcyon days of 1970s and '80s gaming and those picking up the torch today are tagged "[OSR]" for gamers who want a role playing experience that recaptures the energy and style of the hobby's beginnings.

Diplomacy Tournament Rules

Anyone can play in a game. Games will be run as players become available. Starting round begins Friday night and continues Saturday and Sunday mornings at 8 am.

Three rounds. All rounds count. A player is eligible for awards even if they only play one round. Games are DIAS. Players may vote to end the game in a draw, or concede to a solo victory.

All rounds are untimed. Each board keeps its own time, no central clock. If a game continues into the next round, all players on that board must play two games or forfeit the next round (i.e., rounds will not be held for this particular reason).

Players on a board with a solo victor score no points. The winner goes up a tier.

All other games are scored by a combination of relative position, and center count, as follows:

1st position - 7000 points	2nd position - 6000 points
3rd position - 5000 points	4th position - 4000 points
5th position - 3000 points	6th position - 2000 points
7th position - 1000 points

Each center held at game end - 1 point.

Position is determined by center count at game end. For players who were eliminated, position is determined by order of elimination (e.g., players eliminated in the same game year tie for the position in question).

Tied positions will split the average; e.g., two people tied for 1st position get 6500 points apiece. At the end of the tournament, players will be ranked as follows:

- 1 - Tier 3 players (i.e., players who soloed all 3 rounds)
- 2 - Tier 2 players, by point total
- 3 - Tier 1 players, by point total
- 4 - Tier 0 players, by point total

In the event of ties, strength of opposition (as determined by final tournament rankings) will be the tiebreaker. Contact Robert Holt at bobholt@gmail.com for any questions.

B3 A Game of Thrones: 10th Annual (GM: Carlo Gozzi & Bill Parker Room: Snowshed) In this 10th Annual A Game of Thrones event, players take control of one of the great Houses of Westeros. Via resource management, diplomacy, and cunning, each seek to win dominance over the land. Players must give orders to armies, control important characters, gather resources for the coming winter, and survive the onslaught of their enemies. A unique phase mechanic, battle resolution, and special ordering system make for an engaging game in which all players are actively involved at all times. As always, New Players Welcome! (6-18 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B4 Angola (GM: Bob Mosdal Room: Snowshed) Angola is a multi-player game in which players control the various Soviet- and US-backed factions that vied for control of Angola from 1975 to 1976. (2-4 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B6 Five Fillers in Four Hours! (GM: Jeannie Compter Room: Snowshed) We've got a fun collection of light "filler" card games for you to enjoy: Citadels is a fast role selection game of intrigue and city-building. The players must try to build the most valuable districts. Players secretly choose a character card (each with their own special ability) and pass on the rest. Guillotine: As executioners of the French Revolution pandering to the masses, the players in this light and slightly macabre game are trying to behead the least popular nobles. Each day the nobles are lined up and players take turns rearranging the line and then killing the ones at the front of the line until all the nobles are gone. Family Business takes mob warfare to a new level of backstabbing, revenge, and general bloodthirstiness. Every player controls a 'family' and plays various cards to off other players' family members. Love Letter: All of the eligible young men (and many of the not-so-young) seek to woo the princess of Tempest. Unfortunately, she has locked herself in the palace, and you must rely on others to bring your romantic letters to her. Will yours reach her first? Behütensburg: In 13th century Bayern, family ties were strong, but for some, the lust for power was stronger. Players will assemble a "court" of Barons & Knights with their Ladies, then a King and Queen, and finally adding a castle. Each of these elements are worth a certain number of victory points. Knights can be sent on quests for treasure, and rogues can be sent to steal and kidnap ladies. (2-4 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B7 Fortress America (GM: Bill Finger Room: Snowshed) Defend the USA! Complacency over nuclear superiority has left the US with weak conventional forces. Enemies from the east, west, and south have joined forces to invade from all sides. Can America rebuild its military and laser defense systems in time to repel the invaders? Up to four players (the US and three invaders). Originally published in 1986, this game was re-released in 2012 with slightly tweaked rules. We will be playing this newer version. (2-4 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B8 Frag (GM: MIB (Douglas Gray) Room: Snowshed) Frag is a computer game without a computer – a "first-person shooter" on a tabletop. Move your fighter and frag your foes. If you die, you respawn and come back shooting! (3-6 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B9 Merchant of Venus: Classic (GM: Thomas A. Compter Room: Snowshed) Players take on the roles of space traders who move their ships through interconnected systems discovering new alien worlds to trade with. As players start to make money delivering commodities in a unique supply-and-demand system, their earnings can be used to purchase better ships and equipment and construct their own spaceports and factories. In this session we will play the Classic version, where the win is determined by the player with the most money at the end. (2-4 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B10 Pax Porifiana (GM: Brad Blitstein Room: Snowshed) Turn of the century Mexico. The revolution is on and Diaz's government needs to be toppled. Come check out this new card game about the Mexican revolution. Players will take on the roles of rich Hacienda owners in Mexico...all trying to replace Diaz. Buy up ranches and mines. Send troops to "help out" your neighbors. Maybe even partner with the US. Only the strong will survive the revolution! (3-5 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B11 Penny Press (GM: Matt Golec & Robert Dijkman Dulkes Room: Snowshed) Extra, extra! PENNY PRESS returns to Carnage! Set during the tumultuous 'yellow journalism' years at the end of the 19th century, PENNY PRESS has players taking on the roles of newspaper magnates as they strive to become the dominant paper in New York City. PENNY PRESS is a medium-weight worker-placement game with a few innovative twists that plays in about an hour. PENNY PRESS was a finalist in the Cards Against Humanity's Tabletop Deathmatch at this year's Gen Con, and was picked for the 2013 Boston Festival of Indie Games. Local Upper Valley designers Matt Golec and Robert Dijkman Dulkes invite you to come 'roll the presses' on their latest prototype. (2-5 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B12 Power Grid Factory Manager (GM: Dan Beard Room: Snowshed) You have run the power company, now you get to run one of the factories that use that power. As the manager, you have to balance the amount of tools, automation, and product storage you have on hand. Will you need to pick up some extra day laborers? What optimization and control systems will help you? Will you be able to get the tools that you want before the other players snatch them up? And always remember, at the end of the day, the power company will need to get paid. (2-5 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B13 Russian Rails (GM: Brent Cote Room: Snowshed) The Empire Builder goes behind the Iron Curtain. Big, open, socialist Russia gets the capitalist treatment. Lots of ground to cover, and profits are a little lower. But... where else are tanks considered a legitimate commodity? (2-4 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B14 Shipyard (GM: Gary Bobar Room: Snowshed) It is 1870 and sails have ruled the seas for centuries. Now the steam engine is beginning to dominate the seas. Players will use their secret Government Contracts to compete to build ships. They may be they the fastest, the best equipped, or maybe even the largest. Players take on the role of a shipyard owner. Your goal is to build the best ships within the allotted time, assembling bows, sterns, and mid-sections, as well as guns, crew and/or cranes. As your completed ships leave the yard, they are evaluated on many criteria. (2-4 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B15 Tigris & Euphrates (GM: Michele Denault-Reynolds Room: Snowshed) A blast from the past, a good all-around board game. The play offers both tactical and strategic objectives. The game is set as a clash between neighboring dynasties at the dawn of civilization. Come join us and build your dynasty. (2-4 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B16 Wrath of Ashardalon (GM: Jon Berman Room: Snowshed) Can you and your band of adventurers defeat the mighty Dragon...Ashardalon? Come check out this great dungeon crawl from WoTC! (2-5 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

B17 Axis & Allies: 1941 (GM: Bob Yates Room: Snowshed) Come and experience all of WWII using the combined Axis and Allies 1940 Europe and Asia games. Rules are easy to learn. The overall strategic and economic decisions are all available. (2-4 Players) (Friday 1p-11p)

B18 1812: Invasion of Canada (GM: Bob Menzel Room: Oscar Wilde) Come celebrate the 200th anniversary of the War of 1812. England has been impressing Americans into its Navy to fight the wars in Europe. The young nation objects to this practice and decides to drive the British once and for all from North America. B19 Amoeba Wars (GM: Mongo Room: Oscar Wilde) What do you do when you are the only remnants of a fallen galactic empire, that has returned to your home sector only to find it overrun with space amoeba? You drive the infestation of horrible creatures from space. But be careful... there are other remnants of the fallen galactic empire around. And they want the renegade doomsday machines for themselves! (2-5 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

B20 Android (GM: Gordon Spaeth Room: Oscar Wilde) Android is a board game of murder and conspiracy set in a dystopian future. Detectives travel between the city of New Angeles and moon colony Heinlein chasing down leads, calling in favors, and uncovering the sinister conspiracy beneath it all. The detectives must balance their pursuit of the murderer against their personal lives and their inner demons. Android's innovative mechanics ensure that no two detectives play alike. Will you play as Louis Blaine, the crooked cop tormented by guilt and loss? Or will you take the role of Caprice Nisei, the psychic clone who struggles to retain her sanity while proving that she's as human as anyone else? Whoever you choose to play, you've got just two weeks to solve the murder, uncover the conspiracy, and face your personal demons. This game is likely to take as long as five hours from start to finish. It's worth it... (2-5 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

B21 Battlestar Galactica: Pegasus Expansion (GM: Laurie Mackeigan Room: Oscar Wilde) The arrival of the Battlestar Pegasus heralds a new era in the lives of the Galactica crew and the Colonial government, bringing badly needed manpower and firepower to humanity's ongoing fight against the Cylons. However, under the command of Admiral Cain there is no place for compassion or mercy. Now brutal necessity and hard choices erode humanity's moral compass. The Cylons, in turn, are changing as well. The more they are exposed to humans, the more their individual agendas begin to guide their actions. In a time of suspicion and desperate need, the line between right and wrong grows less and less distinct. (3-6 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

B22 Britannia (GM: Matt Taylor Room: Oscar Wilde) Britannia is a historical board game that broadly depicts the millennia-long struggle for control of England, Scotland, and Wales. The game begins with the Roman invasion of 43 A.D., continues through the many struggles between Angles, Saxons, Picts, Norsemen, Scots, Irish, and other tribes, and ends with the Norman invasion of 1066. Britannia allows players to re-create this epic history, re-enacting important battles in some cases, altering the course of history in others. The game rules discourage players from making historically unrealistic moves, but also give players the freedom to alter Great Britain's history in important ways, creating countless interesting "what if?" scenarios. What if Boudicca's Revolt against the Romans had been more successful? What if the Romans and the Romano-British had repelled the Saxon invasions of the 5th and 6th centuries? What if William the Conqueror had died during the Norman invasion of 1066? In Britannia, the players will determine the destiny of a kingdom! (2-4 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

Or maybe the insects will rise up with superior numbers to become the Dominant Species! (3-6 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

B26 Kill Doctor Lucky (GM: Patrick Tierney Room: Oscar Wilde) Why do all mystery games start just after all the fun is over? Welcome to J. Robert Lucky Mansion: a sprawling country estate full of unusual weapons, good hiding places and craven killers. Killers like you. The object? Kill Doctor Lucky. Find a weapon, track the old man down, and take him out. The obstacles? For one thing all of your friends would rather do it first. For another, Doctor Lucky is aptly named. Before the night is over, someone is going to kill Doctor Lucky. Wouldn't you rather it was you? (3-6 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

Based on the epic and widely-acclaimed Sci Fi Channel series, BSG puts players in the role of one of ten of their favorite characters from the show. Each playable character has their own abilities and weaknesses, and must all work together in order for humanity to have any hope of survival. However, one or more players in every game secretly side with the Cylons. Players must attempt to expose the traitor while fuel shortages, food contaminations, and political unrest threatens to tear the fleet apart. BSG is one of the best social game ever created and it's all about the players who plays it! The NEW expansion Daybreak will be in full use. (3-5 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

Based on the popular Hunger games, each player will have a teammate, who's ID will remain secret until you guess / find out who he is, and each team will have their own goal in order to achieve victory. Players must already have knowledge of all the components of the game (base game, Pegasus & Exodus expansion) as everything will be used in it's own way. Who will be the first winner of the Cylon Hunger games? Come join me to find out! (3-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B41 Endeavor (GM: Brennan Martin Room: Oscar Wilde) A game of world exploration and empire building. You represent a European empire colonizing the Mediterranean and shipping to all parts of the world to increase the empire's glory and status in Industry, Culture, Finance and Politics. When a region opens up (i.e. the shipping lanes are full) a player can colonize, attack or retrieve resources from that region. It has a very Euro feel while also having a surprising amount of player interaction. Should appeal to players who like the mental exercise of maximizing the returns on a limited number of actions but who also like some theme. (3-5 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B42 Fire and Axe (GM: Eric Paperman Room: Oscar Wilde) VIKINGS! What more is there to say? Check out this classic game of Viking conquest and maybe some trade. (Only after you have beaten the villages into submission!) Get your Axe and set sail across the world...razing villages and causing havoc! (2-5 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B43 Illuminati (GM: MIB (Danny Campbell) Room: Oscar Wilde) The object of Illuminati is to take control of the world. The phone company is controlled by creatures from outer space. The Congressional Wives have taken over the Pentagon. And the Boy Sprouts are cashing in their secret Swiss Bank Account to smash the IRS! (2-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B44 Le Havre (GM: Gary Bobar Room: Oscar Wilde) A worker placement game, Le Havre is a quite unique game of ship-building, resource management, and town building. Using raw resources, or cash, players build or purchase buildings, that will allow them to take other actions, build ships or gain resources. For example, wood can be upgraded to charcoal. Where once it could have been used for building, now it supplies more energy. Food is a critical factor in this game and building ships is crucial to supply food, and sell products. There are numerous factors to consider in this game, but it is easy to learn and plays very well in spite of the large number of pieces. (2-5 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B45 Lords of Waterdeep (GM: Randy Szabadics Room: Oscar Wilde) Take on the role of one of the secret Lords of Waterdeep. Send your agents into the city to recruit brave adventurers to complete your quests. They will bring you fame and line your pockets with gold. Can you take control of the City of Splendor! The Scoundrels of Skullport expansion will be available. (2-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B46 Mansion of Madness: Carnage at the Grindhouse (GM: Stephen B. Tracy Room: Oscar Wilde) The Dassin Brothers were a wicked lot, Canuck Outlaws spreading terror along the New England coast during the summer and fall of 1929. Two weeks ago their latest heist (turned massacre) led them to the Manor of the Locke family on the island of Lovcraft, Massachusetts. The Locke's were taken hostage as the gangsters attempted to plan their getaway. What happened over the next few hours has the authorities baffled, all they were nearly certain of was that the escape plan failed. What police believe to be the getaway boat was found smashed atop a nearby lighthouse. When officers made their way into the estate they found themselves surrounded by chaos. Corpses were found, family members and mobsters, but not all family members nor all the gangsters. As the investigation began the mysteries grew darker, evidence disappeared and professional consultants left without warning, whimpering about how the shadows seemed to move around on their own.

Three days ago an entire team of Federal agents was assaulted by something in the basement, four lost their lives, one was never found. Now the authorities have called upon some of Arkham's finest paranormal investigators to uncover the truth of what has happened. (4-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B47 Ora et Labora (GM: Sarah Cooper Room: Oscar Wilde) Ora et Labora is another of Uwe Rosenberg's resource management games. In the game, players expand their town and monastery, making resources into other, more valuable things with the end goal of having the most victory points. Building placement in this game matters, it's an interesting mix of the usual worker placement/resource management game and a land management dynamic. Set in Ireland or France (players decide as a group), so many jokes about wine or whisky will occur, be forewarned. (2-3 Players) (Sunday 8a-12p)

B48 Power Grid (GM: Dan Beard Room: Oscar Wilde) Ever want to own the power company? Well, here is your chance. Build your own power plants and make them newer, larger, and more efficient as the game goes on. Will your plants run on coal, oil, trash, nuclear energy (don't worry about the waste), wind, or fusion? As you build your plants you will be able to power more and more cities. And—as with all businesses—the more customers, the more money...and the better power plants. Don't worry if things don't work out this quarter; there are always government subsidies! (3-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B49 Revolution (GM: MIB (Anya Campbell) Room: Oscar Wilde) Blackmail the printer. Threaten the innkeeper. Bribe the priest. Welcome to Revolution! Secretly bid against your opponents to gain the support of the people, win territory . . . and collect more Gold, Blackmail, and Force! (3-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B50 Roborally: LIVE ACTION (GM: Brent Cote, Cassie Bobar & The Neronski's Room: Escapade) Come try out this LIVE ACTION board game? Yep that's right! You will be paired up in teams of two for a twist on this classic board game. One player will be...THE ROBOT! On a life size grid, complete with pits and conveyor belts. B51 Seafarers of Catan (GM: Robert Owen Williams Room: Oscar Wilde) In this expansion to Settlers of Catan, players build shipping lanes to explore beyond the island of Catan and find resources in outlying islands. (3-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B53 Tammany Hall (GM: Richard Creaser Room: Oscar Wilde) There's nothing wrong with a little honest graft - or so they say in old New York. Players square off vying to accumulate power and prestige during four election cycles in New York City. In each election year one player will be crowned mayor, earning acclaim for himself but also forced to delegate offices to his rivals. Only slick maneuvering, fragile alliances and a little backstabbing will help keep you in power. Take control of the city's teeming immigrant populations by commanding legions of voters taken from among the English, Irish, Italian and German. Do you have what it takes to rule New York? Do you have what it takes to control Tammany Hall? (2-5 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B54 Terra Mystica (GM: Robert Dijkman Dulkes Room: Oscar Wilde) In the land of Terra Mystica dwell 14 different peoples in seven landscapes, and each group is bound to its own home environment, so to develop and grow, they must terraform neighboring landscapes into their home environments in competition with the other groups. Terra Mystica is a game with very little luck that rewards strategic planning. Each player governs one of the 14 groups. With subtlety and craft, the player must attempt to rule as great an area as possible and to develop that group's skills. There are also four religious cults in which you can progress. To do all that, each group has special skills and abilities. Taking turns, the players execute their actions on the resources they have at their disposal. Different buildings allow players to develop different resources. Dwellings allow for more workers. Trading houses allow players to make money. Strongholds unlock a group's special ability, and temples allow you to develop religion and your terraforming and seafaring skills. (2-4 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B55 Twilight Struggle for Beginners (GM: Matt Taylor Room: Oscar Wilde) Twilight Struggle inherits its fundamental systems from the card-driven classics We the People and Hannibal: Rome vs. Carthage. It is a quick-playing, low-complexity game in that tradition. The game map is a world map of the Cold War period, whereon players move units and exert influence in attempts to gain allies and control for their superpower. As with GMT's other card-driven games, decision-making is a challenge; how to best use one's cards and units given consistently limited resources? Twilight Struggle's Event cards add detail and flavor to the game. They cover a vast array of historical happenings, from the Arab-Israeli conflicts of 1948 and 1967, to Vietnam and the U.S. peace movement, to the Cuban Missile Crisis and other such incidents that brought the world to the brink of nuclear annihilation. Subsystems capture the prestige-laden Space Race as well as nuclear tensions, with the possibility of game-ending nuclear war. Twilight Struggle is not that complex in game play but there is enough to have people who have never played the game scratching their heads, when reading the rules. This is for those who are interested but not sure if this would be a good game for them, or those interested, maybe have the game, and are not confident to teach their gaming partner how to play from reading the rules. Topics will include setup, general game play, rules with highlights on the special actions (coups, and realignments), care also given to victory conditions, and conversely, how not to lose by forgetting DEFCON. I plan to go through Early war, and of course all are welcome to continue, to exert their influence through the Cold War. (2-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B56 Village (GM: Kristin G Wood Room: Oscar Wilde) A wonderful worker placement game of life where your family members die. You only hope they lived well enough to be place in the history books upon their death. (2-4 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

B57 A Game of Thrones: A Dance with Dragons (GM: Brennan Martin Room: Oscar Wilde) In short, GoT: The Board Game is, dare I say it, the theme of Game of Thrones wrapped around many of the mechanics of Diplomacy. If you like Diplomacy but want a new twist, or you love the Game of Throne series of books/show and want to try your hand at backstabbing and plotting, this game is for you. This scenario has an alternative set up and house cards to reflect the position of the houses at the start of A Dance with Dragons. The alternative set up means players will immediately be coming to grips with their opponents and more for experienced players. 6 players are required (including myself as I really want to play), otherwise I will just run the normal game. (5-6 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

B58 Agricola (GM: Laurie Mackeigan Room: Oscar Wilde) In Agricola, you're a farmer in a wooden shack with your spouse and little else. On a turn, you get to take only two actions, one for you and one for the spouse, from all the possibilities you'll find on a farm: collecting clay, wood, or stone; building fences; and so on. You might think about having kids in order to get more work accomplished, but first you need to expand your house. And what are you going to feed all the little rug rats? (2-5 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

B60 Battlestar Galactica: 3rd Annual-Daybreak Style! (GM: Carlo Gozzi Room: Oscar Wilde) Battlestar Galactica is an exciting game of mistrust, intrigue, and the struggle for survival. Based on the epic and widely-acclaimed Sci Fi Channel series, BSG puts players in the role of one of ten of their favorite characters from the show. Each playable character has their own abilities and weaknesses, and must all work together in order for humanity to have any hope of survival. However, one or more players in every game secretly side with the Cylons. Players must attempt to expose the traitor while fuel shortages, food contaminations, and political unrest threatens to tear the fleet apart. BSG is one of the best social game ever created and it's all about the players who plays it! The NEW expansion Daybreak will be in full use. (3-5 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

B61 Clay-O-Rama (GM: Grace Dorman & Meghan Shirley Room: Oscar Wilde) This is a game where you get to create your own character out of clay and then send it through a treacherous obstacle course. This obstacle course has twists and turns and unbeknownst surprises every move. The roll of a die can either make or break your character. In a race to get to the finish to battle, lots of damage will be done. No one will come out alive. And in the end, there will be CARNAGE! (2-6 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

B62 Emmerlaus Duel of Mages (GM: Marc Edwards Room: Oscar Wilde) My name is Emmerlaus and I am one of the greatest magicians the Universe has ever known. I have overcome hatred, of myself and of others. I have vanquished time; I am immortal. In a dream I inspired my entity to conceive a game: This is a game of imagination and make-believe. As you are playing, never forget this: you are a great mage of forgotten times. Imagine yourself as what you would like to be. Picture yourself as such. Each player starts with 50 hit points. During the game if you lose all your hit points, you are considered dead and must leave the game. The other players keep on playing until there is only one player left. Use your spells to increase your power or slay your opponents. For players 10 years or older. (2-10 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

B63 Empire Builder (GM: Jeannie Compter Room: Oscar Wilde) One of Mayfair's famous crayon rails line, this exciting game allows players to draw their train routes over a map of the United States, Canada, and Mexico. Players start with enough money to build short lengths of track, and, by running their trains and delivering loads to various cities, acquire more cash to expand their networks. (2-5 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

B64 Fortune and Glory: The Cliffhanger Game (GM: Thomas A. Compter Room: Oscar Wilde) It is the late 1930s, and the Nazis have taken control of Germany. They now spread darkness across the globe in their hunt for powerful occult artifacts that can give them the upper hand in the days to come. But the spirit of adventure and freedom won't be stamped out so easily. Heroic adventurers from around the world answer the call, racing against time to hunt down ancient artifacts, explore deadly temples, and fight back the powers of darkness from engulfing the world in flames. It is a race of good versus evil, and only a cunning and agile explorer can claim the ultimate prize of... Fortune and Glory! WB67 Memoir 44': Tigers in the Snow (GM: Matt Golec Room: Gateway) By late 1944, Soviet forces had isolated Germany's Army Group North, blocking their hopes for retreat through East Prussia. Hitler refused pleas for a sea evacuation and instead ordered his troops to hold their ground in anticipation of future offensive strikes. Can the Russians continue to push back the Germans, or will Germany hold onto its captured ground? New players welcome. (5-8 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

B71 Shadows over Camelot (GM: Amy Stender Room: Oscar Wilde) In most games, players compete against each other to achieve victory. Shadows over Camelot proposes a journey of a very different kind, where you and your fellow players, as Knights of the Round Table, will collaborate to jointly defeat... the game! At first glance, this task seems simple enough. After all, shouldn't a band of young and noble Knights - fleet of foot and sound of mind - easily defeat a game that plays itself? Alas your quest is further complicated by the ever-present possibility of a Traitor in your midst, biding his time, waiting to strike at the worst possible moment... Don your cloak, climb astride your warhorse and gallop into the Shadows to join us in Camelot! (3-6 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

F10 Dystopian Wars - Storm of Steel Scenario 2: Operation Shattershield (GM: Jeff Durochia / Aaron Richards Room: Oscar Wilde) Once the Kingdom of Britannia began their offensive into the Prussian Netherlands Southern Zeeland province, it became vitally important to cut off the flow of Prussian reinforcements from across the River Scheldt. The most important transport link was the heavily defended Blucher Bridge leading to the fortified town of Terneuzen in Southern Zeeland. With the waters too risky for a naval attack, and artillery strikes impractical, the Kingdom of Britannia mounted an aerial assault, determined to knock out the bridge and destroy as many Prussian land and aerial military assets as possible. The Prussians in turn were focused on keeping the bridge open and intact at all costs. The strength of their forces further south depended upon the uninterrupted passage of reinforcements across the river.

F22 Dystopian Wars - Storm of Steel Scenario 3: The Second Waterloo! (GM: Jeff Durochia / Aaron Richards Room: Oscar Wilde) As the Kingdom of Britannia began the second stage of its offensive in Belgium, the 7th Land Flotilla under Vice-Admiral LF Richard Duke marched on Brussels. Duke's plan was for his force to act as a diversion while further units moved in from Ghent to assault the disputed but strategically vital Belgian capital. Meanwhile, French General Lionel Avis, leading a powerful force of his 4th Legion 'Richelieu' northwards in support of Belgium's Protectorate government, saw an opportunity to shatter the Duke's offensive. With typically aggressive spirit, he aimed to drive his powerful and numerically stronger army straight through Duke's blocking force and the few defenses they had been able to prepare and then roll on to Brussels.

"Here we stand rooted to the earth, as Wellington's men did before us. Here we stand, steady and prepared, and here we shall hold." -- Vice-Admiral LF Richard Duke addressing his army the night before the battle.

Welcome to the alternate earth global war of Dystopian Wars! Some call it retro sci-fi Victoriana Jules Verne steampunk... we call it fun! F28 Clash of Cruisers (GM: Christopher Dondero Room: Oscar Wilde) Star Trek Fleet Battles - In past years at Carnage we have had titanic battles with 40 or more ships in combat. The big battles are fun but can also be monotonous. This year, in the tradition of Star Fleet Battles, I will be offering a cruiser battle, where D7s, War birds, & Constitution class vessels will prove why they were always the backbone of the fleet. Less ships & more maneuvering should prove for a faster paced, more enjoyable game! Dystopian Wars (6-24 Players) (Sunday 10a-5p)

F29 Dystopian Wars - Storm of Steel Scenario 4: Lion de la Mer (GM: Jeff Durochia / Aaron Richards Room: Oscar Wilde) At the beginning of August 1871, French General Christophe Diagana launched the Republic of France's most ambitious military operation of the campaign -- an attack upon the British Isles themselves. Diagana's plan envisioned this operation as a major raid rather than a full invasion, its objectives designed to support French and Prussian activities in the Low Countries. For his strategy to be at its most effective, Diagana knew that he had to make it appear as if his armies posed a clear and immediate threat to London itself, and so he struck at key strategic assets and resources, trying to make it seem that he was planning on long-term occupation. To French surprise, the bulk of the defending forces were Russian as General Boris Ulyanov had taken command of key parts of the Britannian defense and the Russian 32nd Rifle Army would feel the full wrath of the French assault.

HISTORICAL MINIATURES

CENTURIES OF CONFLICT – THE AGE OF BLACK POWDER

Centuries of Conflict is an offering of Historical Miniature events directed at The Age of Black Powder. Events will cover various conflicts running from 1600 to 1900. This overall event is directed by the Northern Conspiracy's AJ Wright. The hope is to revive the effects of the much loved, and much missed, TriCon event. Events will be marked as CH.

H1 The Battle of Coffee Hill (GM: Mike Griffin Room: Snowshed) On October 13th, 1863 the first battle of Auburn was fought between Union infantry and Confederate cavalry as part of the Bristoe Campaign. Confederate cavalry commander JEB Stuart, while attempting to raid the Union supply train with two brigades of cavalry gets cut off from the Confederate Army by the Union Forces. He has to hide in a ravine during the night to keep from being captured. Stuart sends six men dressed in Union uniforms out to get word to General Lee that he is trapped. All six men make it Lee during the night, who then sends General Ewell to Auburn the next morning to save Stuart. This battle starts on the morning of the 14th. Union General Caldwell has taken up position on the high ground north of the Cedar Creek crossing to protect the Union supply train as it crosses. As the men are making breakfast Ewell's Corps starts firing at them. Stuart hearing the sound of gun fire also attacks from his ravine. And the battle of Coffee Hill starts. House Rules (6-8 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

CH2 "Battle of Leipzig" - South of Leipzig (GM: Scott Monteith Room: Oscar Wilde) This part of the "Battle of Leipzig" has focus to the South of Leipzig and pits Napoleon face off with Allied commanders Schwarzenburg, Barclay and Wittenstein (Austrian & Russian). The Allied Austrian and Russian forces are making their main push from the South and hope to push toward Leipzig and defeat the French Grand Armee', Napoleon also has a major push and it's to the South, where he wants to defeat Allied forces there before he turns North to defeat a Northern Allied army soon to be engaged. There are plenty of infantry, cavalry and artillery to create a lot of Carnage on this battlefield. Choose to be Allied and try to defeat the French or be French and show the Allied armies there is still plenty of fight left. Re-fight this epic battle of 200 years ago, "Battle of Leipzig" October 16-18, 1813. This game will most likely go past the 11pm session end time. Check your 6! (8-12 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

H3 Check Your 6! Arial Combat – Rules Introduction (GM: Joshua McGary & Terry Terry Room: Oscar Wilde) Each player will be given two planes and square off against one another in a classic fighter duel, P-51's vs. Fw-190's. The GMs will show new players the rules and game play of the Check Your 6! game system. The scenario is designed to get the players started quickly and right into the action. Not for young children, please no players under 16. Volley & Bayonet (4-8 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

CH4 Hubbardton - July 1777 (GM: Phil Hammond (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) In the aftermath of the fall of Fort Ticonderoga to the British under General Burgoyne the retreating Colonial troops under Seth Greene fought a hard pressed battle at Hubbardton, VT that nearly saw an end to them. Led by one of Burgoyne's ablest field commanders, Simon Fraser and using the Brunswick troops lead by Von Reisdell to good effect, Fraser routed the Americans but didn't - quite - destroy them the way he wanted to. Those troops left would come back to haunt Burgoyne and especially Von Reisdell at another famous battle - Bennington. Your task is to see if you can avoid the rout and maybe give the British more than they bargained for with a few extra militia that were in theater but never made it to the party. But only just a few, so very few... But if you British, who cares about extra scummy American farmers anyway? You run the empire for his majesty and you can show them how a proper soldier fights, right? Form lines men, and give them a volley! Battle Cry Revised (4-7 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

CH5 The Battle of Bennington (GM: Chris Parker Room: Oscar Wilde) August 1777, General Burgoyne's army had forced its way south from Canada to Fort Edward and is in need of supplies before it pushes on further into New York state. Burgoyne sends a strong force consisting of German troops towards the town of Bennington where he has heard supplies are plentiful. The local regulars and militia have been called out to halt the advance. The rest is as they say.... history. This game will be played with beautiful 40mm figures from Trident. Napoleon's Rules of War (House) (2-8 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

CH6 A Meeting by the River - Spain 1810 (GM: Charlie Glemmo (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) Wellington has sent a force to secure a bridge and crossroads before the river and the bridge become unfordable in the rainy season. Unfortunately for the British, the French have decided they need control of the strategic point also. The game will be played with 28mm figures using Napoleon's Rules of War; a battalion level quick play set of rules. Armies at Lutzen (House) (6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

CH7 Armies at Lutzen (GM: Ed Mueller (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) In the spirit of the Command and Colors series and well known blogger Bob Corderey's Portable Wargame, this is a streamlined version of the author's desktop published battle game of the same name, ported to the miniatures table. Not the actual Battle of Lutzen, but inspired by that clash, play uses a regulated playing area and emphasizes battle management, special unit characteristics, the influence of commanders, touches of period flavor, and a bit of mischief: Croats and Swedes and Shot: Oh my! House Rules (6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

CH8 Battle Line (GM: Christopher Dondero Room: Oscar Wilde) Looking for a fun, fast, easy to play, easy to learn sailing combat game? If yes Battle line is for you! Unlike the "other" sailing game where turns take hours & rules lawyers rule the waves, Battle line turns are quick & combat is easily resolved. 1st, 2d, & 3d rate ships of the line return again this year for 4 hours of broadside pounding fun! Tattered Sails and Shattered Gunwales (6-12 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

CH9 Battle of Valcour Island (GM: Thomas A. Compter Room: Oscar Wilde) The naval Battle of Valcour Island (<http://tinyurl.com/valcour>), also known as the Battle of Valcour Bay, took place on October 11, 1776, on Lake Champlain. The main action took place in Valcour Bay, a narrow strait between the New York mainland and Valcour Island. The battle is generally regarded as one of the first naval battles of the American Revolutionary War, and one of the first fought by the United States Navy. This naval miniatures battle will be re-fought using the Tattered Sails and Shattered Gunwales rule set: (<http://www.comptenterprises.com/pirates/Sails.pdf>). High Noon (2-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

H10 Farmer Whites Fields - September 1814 (GM: Mark Decouteau (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) John White is a hard working Canadian farmer tending his modest farm along the Niagara River. For the past three months this region has been fought over by British, Canadian, American and Native Americans in a no holds barred dogfight. During maneuvering marches and counter-marches the two sides stumble into each other on a hot summer afternoon in the same fields that a little over one year ago was the stage of a similar encounter battle. As the British and American commander your mission is simple, destroy the enemy in front of you or drive them off the battlefield, while incurring as few casualties as possible among your own forces. Isn't this the goal of all commanders throughout military history? See what you can do among Farmer White's Fields. Volley & Bayonet Wing Scale (House War of 1812 Mods) (6 Players) (Saturday 7p-11p)

CH11 February 25, 1863 –FIGHTING NEAR HARTWOOD CHURCH. (GM: Maurice Holmes Room: Oscar Wilde) The first Rhode Island Cavalry Regiment, under Captain Chase, was positioned in skirmish order across the Telegraph Road, when southern cavalry (Virginians – commanded by Fitzhugh Lee – part of JEB Stuart’s cavalry) approach. A cavalry skirmish ensues. The Confederate troopers begin falling back. The Virginian’s made a concerted stand at a cluster of log huts.. The skirmishing became quite severe. Updated High Noon rules will be used. DBA (2-8 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

H12 First Man in Rome! DBA Tournament (GM: Mike Coppinger (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) A campaign game designed for DBA tournament play with sixteen players. This tournament format was originally created by Bob Beattie. I have taken the liberty to change some of the opponents and some of the criteria:

- The campaign pits Marian/Republican Romans against a series of opponents: Gauls, Numidians, Spanish, Selucids, Carthaginians or any other suitable enemy of Rome.
- There are eight Roman players and one player for each of the opponents. Players begin each game with a full roster of troops. The army list chosen for the first game will be the one used throughout the tournament.
- There will be four rounds.
- Each Roman player fights in turn against an Enemy of Rome opponent. The non-Romans stay for all four games with the same terrain board. Terrain will be changed by the referee each round.
- Each round will be approximately 45 minutes. I will declare the last bound. At that point players will have a chance to finish movement, combat and associated die rolls.
- Award 2 points for a win and +1 for each enemy element destroyed. Enemy camp owned at the end of the game counts for 2 points.
- A record of generals killed will also be kept to help break ties.
- At the end of four rounds the points of the Romans are compared and the one with the highest is declared the First Man in Rome. The highest scoring non-Roman is declared the First Enemy of Rome.

If anyone wishes to bring their own 12-stand DBA army they are more than welcome. Those that bring armies will have first dibs on a slot in the tournament. However, I will have eight Roman and eight Enemies of Rome DBA armies available. Age of Iron (Up to 16 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

CH13 Raid on Portland Maine June 27, 1863 (GM: Leo Walsh Room: Oscar Wilde) Civil War Naval action comes to New England! Rebel raider Captain Charles Read, CS Tacony captured a fishing schooner off the Portland Head Light on the Maine coast. He then brought that ship into Portland Harbor to capture a larger Yankee vessel USS Forest City. Its boilers were cold so he seized the cutter USS Caleb Cushing and attempted to burn the wharf area (he was not successful in that endeavor). The local citizens and the small garrison quickly gathered their forces to pursue. Wing Scale Volley & Bayonet (2-6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

CH14 The Battle of Gloucester Point - October 17, 1781 (GM: Allan (AJ) Wrigh (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) During the siege of Yorktown, across the narrows of the Chesapeake bay, a small force lead by Lieutenant Colonel Banastre Tarleton was penned in by a larger force comprised of Americans and French including the Lauzun’s Legion Hussars commanded by Brigadier Marquis de Choisy. During this short time one of the few cavalry on cavalry conflicts of the war occurred which resulted in the unhorsing and wounding of Tarleton but only a few other casualties. Beyond this cavalry action the British were kept mostly in check behind their own defenses until the surrender of Yorktown. The day before the surrender, on the evening of October 16th, Cornwallis attempted an evacuation of Yorktown to Gloucester point by small boats. This evacuation ended up in failure when the boats were scattered during an overnight storm. This scenario assumes that the British were able to cross enough troops before the storm to amass a force large enough to attempt a breakout. A successful defeat of the encircling Franco-American force will allow Cornwallis to complete the evacuation of Yorktown and extend the war in America. An American victory confirms history and marks the end of major battles of the Revolutionary War. Volley & Bayonet (4-5 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

CH15 Wandiwash 1760 (GM: Byron Champlin (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) Until January 22, 1760, the Compagnie des Indies of France and the British Honourable East India Company were evenly matched in India. But after the pivotal Battle of Wandiwash the British lion was ascending on the subcontinent, while the sun of the House of Bourbon was in decline. This positional battle almost has it all: Royal infantry, company troops and sepoy on both sides, French Marines, British grenadiers, European cavalry and native horse. The French, under the Comte Lally de Tollendal are not foreordained to lose. The British, led by Col. Eyre Coote, have to use their resources well and break the siege of Wandiwash. Do you have the stuff to make or lose an empire? Flames of War (6 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

H16 Flames of War! Late War 1600 point Tournament (GM: Shawn Tester Room: Oscar Wilde) Bring your Mojo! This exciting late-war event will feature three exciting 2-hour rounds, with the first round starting at 8:30 AM sharp. We will have some challenging tables this year, along with prizes for best general, best painted army, and more! If you plan to participate, please be sure to pre-register AND email shawntestester@hotmail.com Swashbuckler (16 Players) (Saturday 8a-5p)

CH17 "A Man Walks Into A Bar" (GM: Ralph Gero (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) Inspired by a scene from Alexander Dumas' The Three Musketeers this game pits the musketeers and D'Artagnan against four of the Cardinal's guardsmen. The game is played in two rounds with players getting a chance to play on each side. The handsomely painted figures are doll house figure size at over three inches tall. The rules are "Swashbuckler" originally published by Yaquinto way back in the 1980s. The action takes place in the three dimensions of a 17th century tavern. Set your opponent up for the coup de grace by pulling the carpet from beneath his feet, or by stunning him with a beer mug in the kisser. Seekrieg (4-8 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

H18 Battle of Balikpapan (GM: Gregg Belevick Room: Oscar Wilde) In the darkest days of early 1942 in the Southwest Pacific, a scratch force of mostly obsolete ships of the U.S. Asiatic Fleet made a daring raid on the Japanese landings on the oilfields of northern Borneo. Against all odds they inflicted substantial damage on the IJN and escaped virtually unscathed. Come relive one of the US Navy's shiningest moments, or, avenge the IJN. Hail Caesar (2-8 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

H19 Battle of Flodden 1513 (GM: Richard Claydon (Boston Trained Bands) Room: Oscar Wilde) The ambitious King Henry VIII was keen to secure England's position on the Continental stage and led an army into France as part of the Holy League (an alliance with the Pope, Spain and Holy Roman Empire). This placed his brother –in –law James IV of Scotland in a difficult position being allied with both England and France. James IV sided with his old ally France and using the pretext of revenge for the murder of Robert Kerr, a Warden of the Scottish East March who had been killed by John "The Bastard" Heron led large army across the river Tweed at Coldstream. Queen Regent Catherine sent the veteran Earl of Surrey with an army from the northern levies to intercept the invasion. The Earl of Surrey out flanked James IV's strong position of Flodden Edge and placed his army between the Scots and their homeland. James was forced to try and flight his way home. 500th Anniversary. Have Fun Storming the Castle, Lads (2-7 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

H20 Encounter in the Holy Land (GM: Michael Bailey (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) While there is never complete peace between the Franks and Saracens, there are many times when there is no open warfare. This is one of those times. And in a small walled town not far from the coast, knights and emirs converge to conduct business of their own. Mostly friendly business, but in the Holy Land, when Franks and Saracens mix, things don't stay friendly for very long. Check your 6! (4-8 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

H21 Operation Vengeance (GM: Joshua McGary & Terry Terry Room: Oscar Wilde) Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto, commander of the Imperial Japanese Navy, scheduled an inspection tour of the Solomon Islands and New Guinea. He planned to inspect Japanese air units to boost Japanese morale following the disastrous evacuation of Guadalcanal. On April 14, the U.S. naval intelligence effort code-named "Magic" intercepted and decrypted orders alerting affected Japanese units of the tour. An intercept mission was quickly planned involving P-38's, the only aircraft with the legs to reach the area from Allied air bases, of the 339th Fighter Squadron based on Guadalcanal. Not for young children, please no players under 16. Battle Cry Revised (4-8 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

CH22 The Battle of Saratoga (GM: Chris Parker Room: Oscar Wilde) October 17, 1777, nearly 6000 British and Hessian troops clash with General Gates and the American Army near the town of Saratoga, NY. Over the next few days numerous clashes between the red and blue coats occurred. Will history repeat itself and see the British army surrender encouraging France to enter the war? Or will the British be victorious, casting the rabble aside and marching to Buffalo in hopes of ending the war in 1777. This game will be played with beautiful 40mm figures from Trident Miniatures. Volley & Bayonet Wing Scale (House War of 1812 Mods) (2-8 Players) (Saturday 1p-5p)

CH23 Battle of Queenstown Heights - October 13, 1812 (GM: Mark Decouteau (Northern Conspiracy) Room: Oscar Wilde) The Americans have developed a complex, multi-pronged, plan for the invasion of Canada. Major General Isaac Brock have already defeated one attack by a force under William Hull in the Michigan Territory. General Brock has raced back to the Niagara frontier and prepared British/Canadian defenses along the river. Major General Stephen Van Rensselaer has amassed a substantial force of Regulars and Militia, and is finally ready to try an assault across the river. The day of battle has arrived and now you can assume the role of either of these commanders as they vie for control of the strategically important section of the U.S./Canadian border. Knighthood and The Middle Ages (6 Players) (Saturday 7p-11p)

H24 Grab The Loot (GM: Chris Parker Room: Oscar Wilde) Dusk draws near as two Warlords descend on the village of Clipstone, in Sherwood Forest. Both of them intent on pillage. Villagers, run, with no time to hide their worldly goods, only time to save their bodies. The cost of a country being invaded. Be it silver coin, food for the hungry troops or even the search for religious relics the mercenaries and householders want to grab as much as they can before nightfall... A shame that someone else had the same idea. This is a skirmish level game played out with beautiful 40mm Trident Miniatures. Carnage & Glory II computer moderated (4-6 Players) (Saturday 7p-11p)

CH25 Leuthen - Fredericks greatest Victory 1757 (GM: Rich Wallace Room: Oscar Wilde) On a frigid December 5th, in a season when armies usually sought the comfort of winter quarters, the opposing forces met on the snow covered fields surrounding the Silesian village of Leuthen. After deftly maneuvering around Prince Charles' flank Frederick's Prussians attacked with unprecedented fury collapsing the enemy line. However, despite this initial crushing blow the Austrians were able to reorganize their front and fight the Prussians to a standstill leaving the battle's final outcome still in doubt. Only after a climatic cavalry charge, did the Habsburg army finally break and retreat to Breslau. Two weeks later the city capitulated and the Austrians evacuated Silesia. Although the war would continue for another six years Frederick would never again attain the level of success he did at Leuthen, his greatest victory. Memoir 44 (4-8 Players) (Saturday 7p-11p)

H26 Memoir 44: Tigers in the Snow (GM: Matt Golec Room: Oscar Wilde) By late 1944, Soviet forces had isolated Germany's Army Group North, blocking their hopes for retreat through East Prussia. Hitler refused pleas for a sea evacuation and instead ordered his troops to hold their ground in anticipation of future offensive strikes. Can the Russians continue to push back the Germans, or will Germany hold onto its captured ground? New players welcome. Sergeants Miniatures Game by lost battalion games (5-8 Players) (Saturday 7p-11p)

H27 Sergeants Miniatures Game (GM: Michael Cassiani Room: Oscar Wilde) This is a new innovative squad level ww2 skirmish game that combines card game, miniatures, and board game all into to one. CH28 The Kraal (GM: Jennifer Paperman Room: Oscar Wilde) A Zulu kraal sits a day's march from the Mzinyathi River (which the British call the Buffalo River). This kraal is home to an impi whom the British seek to punish by burning it to the ground. Of course, the Zulus who call it home would prefer not to see that happen. Fist Full of Lead (3-8 Players) (Saturday 7p-11p)

H29 Thrilling Naval Engagement!! (GM: Mike Paine Room: Oscar Wilde) Later dispatches received in London show that the naval engagement on the Yangtze River is worthy to be numbered among the most daring acts of heroism of the British Navy.. The facts are that two merchants ships, which had been illegally commandeered by the Chinese general, Yangsen, were moored inshore with 300 Chinese soldiers and their British prisoners aboard. The Cockchafer was lying near, but practically out of action, sent in little gun-boats covered at point blank range by Chinese artillery and machine-guns. Their total officers and crew did not number more than 120. Never- the less our men boarded the captured ships, and hand-to-hand fighting with the 300 Chinese occurred before the British prisoners could be released. The "Daily Telegraph's" diplomatic correspondent says: The little gun-boats ran the gauntlet of the numerous Chinese field batteries as well as machine-guns. The small party of sailors succeeded from their low decks in boarding merchant-men, bristling with rifles and guns, and liberating the four officers, was in it-self a miracle. Fame or Flames (Home Rules) (3-8 Players) (Saturday 7p-11p)

H30 On the Wings of Eagles (GM: Gregg Belevick (Battle Group Boston) Room: Oscar Wilde) Come and learn the best and the worst of your favorite WWII aircraft. Fame or Flames is about as close as tabletop gaming gets to the real thing, an aerial warfare game for warplane geeks. So strap in, throttle up, pull stick and take to the skies! No prior experience required. The Sword and the Flame (2-12 Players) (Sunday 8a-12p)

CH31 The Kraal (GM: Jennifer Paperman Room: Oscar Wilde) A Zulu kraal sits a day's march from the Mzinyathi River (which the British call the Buffalo River). This kraal is home to an impi whom the British seek to punish by burning it to the ground. Of course, the Zulus who call it home would prefer not to see that happen. A Fierce Tempest (Modified) (3-8 Players) (Sunday 8a-12p)

H32 Prokhorovka – July 12th, 1943 (Russia) (GM: Mike Griffin Room: Oscar Wilde) The climax of the battle of Kursk came when 1st SS Panzer Grenadier Division while advancing towards Prokhorovka was unexpectedly struck head on by the 5th Guards Tank Army. Both sides deployed massive armor, infantry and aircraft to the battle. Which side do you favor? There isn't much place to hide in this one. Check your 6! (6-8 Players) (Sunday 10a-5p)

H33 Bomber Stream over Berlin (GM: Joshua McGary & Terry Terry Room: Oscar Wilde) It's 1944 and the Allies have launched wave after wave of massive bomber raids over the skies of Berlin. Bomber raids numbering as high 1500 aircraft were occurring night and day. This scenario will pit American and British bombers and fighter escorts against stubborn German defenders. The mission is simple. For the Allies; get the bombers through to their targets. For the Germans; shoot the bombers down before they leave the engagement zone. This session is designed for players to come in and out throughout the day and will last as long as there are interested players. Not for young children, please no players under 16. Realms of Wonder (6-12 Players) (Sunday 12p-5p)

LIVE ACTION ROLE PLAYING GAMES

L1 Realms of Wonder (GM: Tara Pregent & Andy Disbrow Room: Roundabout) The Realms is a world of medieval fantasy where people live by wits and courage, by magic and the sword. Within the Realms can be found terrifying monsters, magical powers, armored knights, and pious monks. In this world, you can become a valiant fighter, a sneaky thief, or a powerful sorcerer; a soldier of fortune, or a peasant farmer. Enter the Realms and learn the ways of the sword; become an apprentice mage or squire to a knight; grab a goblet and listen to the bard's tale as you gather at the banquet; compete in the tournament and improve your swordsmanship; take up your bow and fire at the approaching army. For some, this will be your first time attending a live action role playing game, and that is all right. We will have extra weapons available as well as a weapon-making seminar for those who would like their own. We also will hold a few training courses so that you can learn the rules of the game before you play. As always, we will have a fully functional dungeon crawl to work in. Come and have fun with us in the Realms of Wonder. You're in the Realms now, and you'll never be quite the same again. For more information, email tara.jackson1@gmail.com. ROLE PLAYING GAMES

Carnage on the Mountain

This year's Carnage theme is "Carnage on the Mountain," in honor of our new location at Killington. Many of our RPG GMs have crafted games inspired by the theme. The entries for these games begin with "MT."

Pathfinder Society Information

To pre-register for Pathfinder Society (PFS) games, players must BOTH mail in a hard-copy Carnage registration form AND sign up on Warhorn at <https://warhorn.net/events/carnage-on-the-mountain-pfs>. Walk-ins will be accommodated once pre-registered attendees are seated.

Playing it Old School

Join the Old School Renaissance! Role playing games from the wild, halcyon days of 1970s and '80s gaming and those picking up the torch today are tagged "[OSR]" for those who want a role playing experience that recaptures the energy and style of the hobby's beginnings.

R1 Ghostbusters: Postdiluvian Predators of Rochester (GM: Tyler Dion, Carnage Room: Chandelier) The latest in a near-annual string of "once in a hundred years" storms lashes at the slopes of the Green Mountains. The people of Rochester, cut off from the rest of the world by the out of control White River, report being beset by dark hounds and monstrous vermin. Some unlucky few recall a shadowy figure before lapsing into feverish silence. With the local authorities overtaxed by flood relief, it's up to the enterprising local Ghostbusters International franchise to investigate the sightings and assuage the fatigued townsfolk. Characters are provided and no experience is necessary for this frightfully cheerful role playing adventure. Unisystem (3-6 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R2 Hourglass Part I: Corporate Raiders (GM: Tom K. Loney, Peryton Publishing Room: Chandelier) This is the last work day before you retire from the Mutually Assured Development Insurance Company, MADCO. The boss wants to take you all golfing at lunch. Just a few things to do around the office before then. Wait a second, did that window washer just swing like a monkey from one gondola to another? Was that an explosion coming from the main lobby? And what in the world is that...? The transition from your work life to your new life isn't going to be what you expect. Welcome to Qalidar: Resistance. This session is the first part of Hourglass, a two-part adventure, but attending both sessions is not required. Part II: Helter Skelter, will be run by Robin Lea on Friday at 7 pm. Qalidar: Resistance (2-6 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R3 One from the Vault [OSR] (GM: John M. Prushko Room: Snowshed) The heavy oaken door squeals open, revealing a room thickly laden with dust. Cobwebs fill the empty spaces above the shapeless masses littering the floor. Dank, mildewed air assaults your nostrils. Suddenly, a box falls, spilling its stained papers at your feet. "HEY! There's my D&D collection! What LUCK... Let's play THIS one!" Once again, it's time to grab a module, dust it off, and play 1st edition D&D. I'm not gonna tell you WHICH module, but it'll be sure to bring back memories. Characters provided; all are welcome! D&D 1E (modified) (4-8 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R4 Paranoia Fiasco (GM: Tom Mechler Room: Snowshed) Times are tough, lately, in Alpha Complex. Communists, mutants, and secret society traitors are a constant threat. Despite your friend The Computer's assurances that everything is getting better, opportunities for advancement are dwindling, while the cost of your next replacement clone just keeps going up. It's getting so an honest Troubleshooter can't get ahead just by doing the job. Which is why you're a less than completely honest Troubleshooter. In Fiasco (www.bullypulpitgames.com/games/fiasco/), players engineer and play out stupid, disastrous situations; what could be more appropriate for Paranoia? As GM, I will be a full participant in addition to facilitating the action and storyline. The rules are simple, and if you are not shy, are cooperative with a group, and have a story to tell, then we'll have a fun few hours. Fiasco (2-4 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R5 Pathfinder Society 0-04: Frozen Fingers of Midnight (GM: PFS Judges Room: Long Trail Pub) By Craig Shackleton. Skelg the Ripper, envoy from the Land of the Linnorm Kings, lies wasting away in his villa on the outskirts of Absalom. A frigid curse followed Skelg from his northern homeland and grips his bearish heart in its frosty embrace. As the bizarre freezing ailment pushes Skelg to the brink of death, the Society dispatches you and your fellow Pathfinders to uncover the secrets of the curse before Absalom falls to its icy grip. Pre-register BOTH via the form in the Carnage booklet AND via Warhorn. Pathfinder (Multiple Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R6 Pathfinder Society 4-07: Severing Ties (GM: PFS Judges Room: Long Trail Pub) By Larry Wilhelm. The Pathfinder Society has discovered a new Aspis Consortium base in the pirate city of Riddleport and sends a small team, disguised as newly hired mercenaries from Magnimar, to infiltrate the rival cell. After proving their value by carrying out a number of tasks in the City of Cyphers, the Pathfinders can learn the location of one of the consortium's local allies and ensure that the support the consortium is counting on won't come. Pre-register BOTH via the form in the Carnage booklet AND via Warhorn. Pathfinder (Multiple Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R7 Pathfinder Society 4-09: Blakros Matrimony (GM: PFS Judges Room: Long Trail Pub) By Thurston Hillman. The eldest daughter of the prominent Blakros family is set to wed an influential Hellknight. Dressed for a wedding befitting royalty, a team of Pathfinders attends the ceremony on behalf of the Decemvirate. Will their presence ultimately strengthen the Society's relationship with the influential Blakroses, or will events at the wedding bring the already tenuous alliance to a breaking point? Pre-register BOTH via the form in the Carnage booklet AND via Warhorn. Pathfinder (Multiple Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R8 Pathfinder Society: We Be Goblins (GM: PFS Judges Room: Long Trail Pub) By Richard Pett. The Licktoad goblins of Brinestump Marsh have stumbled upon a great treasure—fireworks! Unfortunately, the tribe member responsible for the discovery has been exiled for the abhorrent crime of writing (which every goblin knows steals words from your head). To remedy the situation, His Mighty Girthness Chief Rendwattle Gutwad has declared that the tribe's greatest heroes must venture forth to retrieve the remaining fireworks from a derelict ship stranded in the marsh. To prove themselves heroes, the PCs must complete a series of dangerous dares, from swallowing bull slugs to braving the dreaded Earbiter. But even then, the adventure is just beginning. For the ship in question is far from uninhabited.... Pre-register BOTH via the form in the Carnage booklet AND via Warhorn. Pathfinder (Multiple Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R9 Quest for the Magical Checkers (GM: Mike Larsen, Peryton Publishing Room: Chandelier) Join the Laser Ponies as they go on a quest to find the magical checkers, which have been lost for a thousand years. Will they find all the pieces? Will the monsters try and stop them from completing their noble quest? Does this sound eerily like an eighties cartoon with magical ponies?...prolly. The only difference is that QAGS is involved. QAGS: Laser Ponies (4 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R10 Randomly Generated Title (GM: Dr. Nik, PaNik Productions Room: Highlander) Players' Choice! With a combination of story elements submitted by the players and some choice random table rolls, this 100% improvisational game will test the wits and prowess of the game master and players. R11 TC Fantasy: Low Level Grab (GM: Steven Parenteau, TotalCon Room: Long Trail Pub) Starting off this year at Carnage we'll begin with one of our 1st to 3rd level adventures to get new characters up and rolling for the rest of the weekend. Surviving characters should make it to 4th level to continue the weekend series. D&D 3.5 (modified) (4-10 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R12 The Bloodstone Cartel Chapter 2: Illicit Spoils (GM: John Crossley Room: Snowshed) Hot on the footsteps of "The Bloodstone Cartel, Chapter 1: Dirt Poor," the Geddal Family is, remarkably, still intact after dealing the Vaasan Bloodstone Cartel a deadly blow and making off with immeasurable wealth. But your family has a problem: "rich" does not mean "smart." What has so abruptly become your family's boon could well spell your doom. Stay ahead of the authorities and those you've so grievously wronged! Role-play is rewarded. Faerûnian lore is welcome! 2nd level characters provided. D&D 3.5 (4-6 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R13 The Boiling Point (GM: Matt MacKeigan Room: Snowshed) Three nights ago, the city was rocked by the impact of meteorite Z27. Since then, a heat wave has crippled the metro area, causing mass blackouts. Now, seemingly unprovoked rioting and mayhem has broken out downtown. During all this confusion, there was a security breach at the Aegis Maximum Security Prison for Super Villains. It is going to take all your super powers and investigative skills to save a city at The Boiling Point! Mutants & Masterminds 3E (3-6 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R14 The Evil in Wispydale [OSR] (GM: Robert Lamm Room: Snowshed) Spring break! That means beer, beaches, and bikinis! Except for one group of students, who thought an isolated cabin in Vermont would be a better way to spend their vacation. They remembered the beer, but traded the beaches for moss-covered rocks, and bikinis for hunting jackets. Soon, the fun and games will be supplanted by fear and terror. Next time they'll remember to head south. At least, the ones who survive will. Call of Cthulhu (4-6 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R15 The Gaslight Gang vs. EVIL (GM: Scott Legault Room: Snowshed) The Gaslight Gang rides again. Join Iron Jim, Dr. Cogswell, The Great Mysterio, Vanity Rose, and others in rising from London's lower east side to thwart the forces of EVIL (Enormous Vermin In London). Brass & Steel sets adventurers in turn-of-the-century England, when the world teeters on the brink of global strife, progress in technology rapidly outpaces culture, and the division between wealth and poverty widens daily. Fight against oppression as a soldier, scoundrel, or scholar. Wield mysterious powers as an arcanist, touch others' minds as a lucid dreamer, or master steampunk devices as an artificer. Rules explained, characters provided, adult themes. Brass & Steel: A Game of Steampunk Adventure (6-8 Players) (Friday 1p-5p)

R16 The Inheritance (GM: Andre Kruppa, Game Soapbox Productions Room: Suite) No rules knowledge required, but skilled roleplaying a must. A theatrical-style tabletop game using lights and sound, Inheritance is intended for mature players only. It will run a bit late, lasting about 4.25 hours. (Please, no players familiar with the scenario, which has been run at past conventions.) May be recorded for podcasting and/or video; players may be asked to sign a release. After the trials of your youth, you have come far. College was wonderful, and everything now seems grand. You and your fellow orphaned siblings and cousins are on the eve of your inheritance. The time has come to return to your ancestral home and learn of the wonders that the foundation has in store for you. Only one thing mars your experience: the nightmares of so long ago have returned... Call of Cthulhu 6E (4-8 Players) (Friday 1p-5:15p)

R17 “It can only get better...Right?” [OSR] (GM: James Doyle II Room: Snowshed) Agents of Orion: Though successful, your infiltration into the Web stronghold and destruction of their doomsday device has left much to be desired. Not only did you allow one of Orion’s top snipers to get seriously wounded, but you also allowed our top weapons specialist and tactical strike team leader to be captured. Your current orders are to fix this by reviewing the intel and completing a covert rescue mission to retrieve our agent before any information can be derived from his capture. Characters provided. TSR Top Secret (3-5 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

What is all that stuff floating out there in the dark, anyway? And why is it coming toward you? Qalidar: Resistance (3-6 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

R24 Hyperborea: Ghost Ship of the Desert Dunes [OSR] (GM: Jeffrey Talamian, North Wind Adventures Room: Chandelier) In the depths of the Diamond Desert lie the skeletal remains of Ymir’s Serpent, a legendary Viking longship. In days of yore, Sigtrygg Forkbeard led his company upriver, into the desert’s hostile heart. Unfortunately for both the town and the circus, entertainment isn’t the only opportunity the carnival presents. R34 The Goldfish Experiment (GM: Tom K. Loney, Peryton Publishing Room: Chandelier) The pirates might've been cleared from Triton's space colonies, but the saucer-flying Others haven't given up the place just yet. Only Space Fleet's best can keep Neptune space safe. Come join the command staff of the rocketship defending human space. Spacers (2-6 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

R35 The Lair of Vaasareyn [OSR] (GM: Charlton Wilbur Room: Snowshed) Rumors tell of the great sorceress Vaasareyn, who later in her life became paranoid and turned her arts to the security and defense of her treasures (which, of course, are vast beyond counting, at least according to rumor, which never lies). Vaasareyn has not been seen for at least a hundred years, and the spells protecting her island have kept it safe from detection. Except that one drunken night in a tavern, you won a great brass key in a game of dice. The rogue who lost it claimed that if you set to sea in Isonport Harbor while carrying it, Vaasareyn's island would be revealed once, and once only, before you returned to land. Characters provided, or contact Charlton Wilbur at cwilbur@chromatico.net for more information. Lamentations of the Flame Princess (4-6 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

R36 The Night War (GM: Andre Kruppa, Game Soapbox Productions Room: Suite) By Kevin Ross; presented by Andre Kruppa. No rules knowledge required, but skilled roleplaying a must. A theatrical-style tabletop game using lights and sound, The Night War is intended for mature players only. It will run a bit late, lasting 5 to 6 hours. (Please, no players familiar with the scenario.) May be recorded for podcasting/video; players may be asked to sign a release. The apocalyptic nightmare seems interminable, with the endless rain, lakes of blood, and awful, sticky septic mud; the screaming shells and choking gas; the machine guns spitting lead. The Great War is a savage ordeal of senseless destruction and death beyond comprehension. But when the whistles blow, it is time to go over the top, and then the real terror begins. Horror lurks in the muddy, noxious darkness, coiling to strike—something far more loathsome than simple human destruction. Call of Cthulhu 6E (4-6 Players) (Friday 7p-12:30a)

[OSR] (GM: James Carpio, Gygax Magazine Room: Chandelier) A Federation science crew sent on an archaeological mission to planet M-113 over a year ago is declared missing. There had been no communications until a sub-space transmission finally reached a merchant ship almost 10 months after it was sent. Star Fleet is sending a top archaeological expert and his wife to the planet with your crew and wants an investigation of the situation. Set in the J. J. Abrams Star Trek Universe. FASA Star Trek (5-7 Players) (Friday 7p-11p)

R40 Pathfinder Society: We Be Goblins (GM: PFS Judges Room: Long Trail Pub) By Richard Pett. The Licktoad goblins of Brinestump Marsh have stumbled upon a great treasure—fireworks! Unfortunately, the tribe member responsible for the discovery has been exiled for the abhorrent crime of writing (which every goblin knows steals words from your head). To remedy the situation, His Mighty Girthness Chief Rendwattle Gutwad has declared that the tribe's greatest heroes must venture forth to retrieve the remaining fireworks from a derelict ship stranded in the marsh. To prove themselves heroes, the PCs must complete a series of dangerous dares, from swallowing bull slugs to braving the dreaded Earbiter. But even then, the adventure is just beginning. For the ship in question is far from uninhabited.... Pre-register BOTH via the form in the Carnage booklet AND via Warhorn. Pathfinder (Multiple Players) (Friday 11:30p-late)

R41 The Keys to Christmas Place (GM: Tom K. Loney, Peryton Publishing Room: Chandelier) Whack-job gossip and bad tabloid journalism surround the recent events at Horse Head Crag, New York. Those living in the town know better than not to listen. Officials and regular media keep blaming drug dealers while failing to explain the weirder things going on. While the tourism has indeed brought in money, with people looking for the hooved Sasquatch, known as "Big Hoofy," the locals can only laugh so much. They are very afraid. Part of the Lovecraft-influenced "Castle of the Month" cycle, which has been going on at Carnage for five years now. Crawlspace 13 (3-8 Players) (Friday 11:30p-late)

MTR43 Escape from Mount Tribulation (GM: Bill Finger Room: Snowshed) The Duke has long ruled without mercy, tolerance, or justice. You have long struggled against his oppression, whether through oratory, satire, or freedom fighting. It was inevitable, then, that you would be captured, tried for treason, and placed into his home for political prisoners: the dank, inescapable dungeon under his fortress on Mount Tribulation. Armed with nothing but your wits, addled by deprivation, can you escape the inescapable? Can you find allies in this inhospitable place? Will you ever see the light of day again? D&D 3.5 (4-8 Players) (Saturday 8a-12p)

R47 Operation Miami (GM: Dan Williams Room: Chandelier) In 2073, the Earth was invaded by Duke Aanishghaul and Seven Hives of the 'Aabun. They conquered most of South and Central America, parts of the southern United States, Africa, South Asia, and parts of southern Europe. Australia is their great stronghold, and Miami is their major hub of operations in the Caribbean and Atlantic. After 12 years of warfare, the governments of Earth and the 'Aabun Terran Dominion came to an uneasy truce—but not everyone has given up. Today, in 2102, not all are content to share Earth with the insectlike invaders. Take on the role of a Human League operative, and strike a blow for Earth's freedom. This year, the school’s headmaster has invited the heroes to participate, against the contest’s longstanding traditions. While the Breaching Festival has not seen a champion in over a century and a half, this year’s festival promises to be the deadliest trial the school has ever known. Homeless and bored, they left their swampy homeland to join the neighboring goblin tribe, the Birdcrunchers. The good news is that the Birdcrunchers are willing to let the heroes join their tribe. The better news is that the Birdcrunchers have heard of these four, and want one of them to become their new chieftain. The bad news is that before the goblins can join, they'll need to endure a series of dangerous and humiliating tests. Very dangerous. Very humiliating. Pre-register BOTH via the form in the Carnage booklet AND via Warhorn. Pathfinder (Multiple Players) (Saturday 7p-11p)

Linked to the outside world only by an overgrown, mostly forgotten trail, the villagers are comfortable with their isolation. Their ways are humble, quaint, and at times odd, and when travelers come, they find the town awkward and unmemorable. When a clerk in the city of Magnimar discovers that, due to a clerical error, Ravenmoor hasn't paid taxes in years, a tax collector is sent to settle accounts with its mayor. When he fails to return, a group of adventurers must investigate his disappearance. Did he really make off with the taxes for himself, as the villagers suspect? To remedy the situation, His Mighty Girthness Chief Rendwattle Gutwad has declared that the tribe's greatest heroes must venture forth to retrieve the remaining fireworks from a derelict ship stranded in the marsh. To prove themselves heroes, the PCs must complete a series of dangerous dares, from swallowing bull slugs to braving the dreaded Earbiter. But even then, the adventure is just beginning. For the ship in question is far from uninhabited.... Pre-register BOTH via the form in the Carnage booklet AND via Warhorn. Pathfinder (Multiple Players) (Sunday 1p-5p)

R129 Serpent's Tooth (GM: Charlton Wilbur Room: Snowshed) You are all the courtiers and frenemies of a king who's losing his grip on his kingdom. First, we choose the nature of the king: homecoming king, dot-com CEO, religious guru, Big Bad of a dungeon, or actual king. Then it gets nasty: you're all his friends or courtiers, but you're scheming with the other friends and courtiers to take him down. Serpent's Tooth is a diceless story game. Characters will be created on the spot. Contact Charlton Wilbur at cwilbur@chromatico.net for more information. Serpent's Tooth (2-5 Players) (Sunday 1p-5p)

R130 Sunset (GM: Bradford Younie, Carnivore Games Room: Snowshed) A teenager asks the Foundation for Paranormal Investigation to help track down a bizarre creature that has been plaguing a small town in Maine. But the case becomes deadly as the creature turns out to be far more sinister than expected. The Unexplained (3-6 Players) (Sunday 1p-5p)

R131 The Dresden Files: Evil Acts (GM: John Sussenberger, OGC Room: Snowshed) A prominent local thespian arranges a single performance of The Tempest as his swansong to the theatre, casting himself in the role of Prospero, the exiled wizard. Only the PCs, and a handful of locals "in the know," become aware of what is really going on: he's a real wizard of the White Council, using the play to cast one final, powerful spell—assuming his daughter's interference or his own dark nature doesn't bring down disastrous consequences first. The Dresden Files (3-6 Players) (Sunday 1p-5p)

R132 Vinnie's Very Bad Day (GM: T. J. Howell Room: Chandelier) When a known Seattle Mafia figure comes to Hong Kong, there's certainly an interesting story to be told. That's why small-time news producer Ji Soong hires the White Knights to do some digging. What follows is a tale of betrayal, a stolen case full of Mafia property, and some old-fashioned Triad retribution. Shadowrun (3-6 Players) (Sunday 1p-5p)

SPECIAL EVENTS:

S1 Gyga Magazine Presents: Pub Quiz! (GM: James Carpio & Mary Lindholm, Gyga Magazine Room: Tavern) Last year two brave groups faced the Cube of Death; this year many brave (and possibly drunk) adventurers will answer the call. In the Carnage Nerd Pub Quiz, our heroes will be faced with geek and pop-culture related questions... Answer correctly and survive; answer foolishly and perish along the way. Based on the Cube of Death rules by Studio 187 and hosted by Gyga Magazine editors James Carpio and Mary Lindholm. Your Nerd Cred is on the line! Cube of Death (Variant) (6-24 Players) (Saturday 11:30p-late)
